

Board of Director's Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to protect Friendship Home's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a Member of the Board of Directors of Friendship Home or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any Member of the Board or Directors, or member of committee with governing board-delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has directly or indirectly, through business, investment or family:

- a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which Friendship Home has a transaction or arrangement.
- b. A compensation agreement with Friendship Home or with any entity or individual with which Friendship Home has a transaction or arrangement.
- c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which Friendship Home has a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III

Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board of Directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. He/she should not be counted in determining the quorum for the meeting. The remaining Board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing a Conflict of Interest

An interested person may make a presentation at the Board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

- a. The President of the Board of Directors or chairperson of the committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- b. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Directors or committee shall determine whether Friendship Home can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- c. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Board Members whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy

If the Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis of such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV

Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

- a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether the conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the quorum situation, the abstention from voting, the content of discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V

Compensation

- a. A voting member of the Board of Directors who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from Friendship Home for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- b. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from Friendship Home for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- c. No voting member of the Board of Directors or committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from Friendship Home either individually or collectively is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI

Annual Statements

This policy shall be reviewed annually at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Each Member of the Board and member of a committee with governing board-delegated powers shall annually sign a statement that affirms such person:

a. Has received copy of the conflict of interest policy;

- b. Has read and understands the policy;
- c. Has agreed to comply with the policy; and
- d. Understands Friendship Home is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Records Retention Schedule

The periods set forth below apply to all computer records and hard copy records. Each employee and supervisor is responsible for ensuring the compliance of their own records (and the records of the employees or contractors under their supervision) - whether in file cabinets, computer hard drive or elsewhere. The Executive Director is ultimately responsible to the Board of Directors for agency records and compliance with this policy.

Whistleblowers

Friendship Home is committed to maintaining the highest possible standards of ethical, moral, and legal business conduct. Friendship Home is committed to maintaining open communication with all employees. Friendship Home encourages employees, directors and officers to raise serious concerns internally so that Friendship Home can address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions.

Whistleblowers, as defined by this policy, are volunteers, employees, directors and officers of Friendship Home who report an activity they reasonably believe: 1) violates any state or federal law; 2) violates or amounts to noncompliance with a state or federal rule or regulation; or 3) violates fiduciary responsibilities of a nonprofit corporation.

Reportable activities may include, but are not limited to: breaches of confidentiality; billing for services not performed or for goods not delivered; fraudulent financial reporting; and other violations of federal, state or local laws.

Whistleblower protections are provided in two important areas: confidentiality and against retaliation. Every effort will be made to protect the whistleblower's identity. However, identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, comply with the law, and provide accused individuals with their legal rights of defense. Friendship Home will not tolerate any retaliation against a whistleblower. Protections from retaliation include, but are not limited to: adverse employment actions such as termination, compensation decreases, or poor work assignments and threats of physical harm. Any whistleblowers who believe they are being retaliated against must contact the Human Resources Manager immediately. The right of a whistleblower for protection against retaliation does not include immunity for any personal wrongdoing that is alleged, investigated and substantiated.

If any volunteer, employee, director or officer reasonably believes a violation has occurred, they must promptly contact the Human Resources Manager, who is responsible for investigating and coordinating any necessary disciplinary or corrective action. In the event that the volunteer, employee, director or officer would like to file a complaint against the Executive Director, he/she may report this to the President of the Board of Directors. The President of the Board will consult with the Chair of the Human Resources Committee to determine an appropriate process to investigate and respond to the complaint.

Whistleblowers must exercise sound judgment to avoid baseless allegations. Whistleblowers must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

Employees or volunteers with any questions regarding this policy should contact the Human Resources Manager, Finance Director or the Executive Director.

Directors' Compensation Policy

Directors' Compensation Policy

Basis For Salary Determination

The Executive Director of Friendship Home is the person responsible for the efficient operation of the agency. It is the desire of Friendship Home to provide a reasonable and not excessive salary for the Executive Director and other director roles.

The Human Resources Committee will obtain research and information to make a recommendation for the compensation of the Executive Director and other director roles. This includes data that documents compensation and benefits for similarly qualified individuals in comparable positions at similar organizations. The primary source will be the Nonprofit Association of the Midlands (NAM) Salary Survey but may also include compensation studies by independent sources, documented telephone calls to other organizations and information obtained from the IRS Form 990 filings of similar organizations. Other factors considered include merit, longevity, and fiscal feasibility. The NAM Salary Survey provides current average salary information for non-profit positions in the Lincoln/Omaha, Nebraska area.

Review and Recommendation of Salaries

The President of the Board of Directors and/or a committee appointed by the President will review and recommend the salary for the Executive Director. The Executive Director will review and recommend the salary of other staff deemed necessary to the Human Resource Committee.

The President of the Board of Directors, who is a volunteer and not compensated by the Nonprofit, will operate independently without undue influence from the Executive Director. No member of the Human Resources Committee will be a staff member or have any relationship with staff that could present a conflict of interest.

Approval of Salaries

Upon the recommendation of the Chair of the Human Resources Committee, the Board of Directors will give final approval to the salary budget recommendations. In the event that the Friendship Home Executive Director's salary exceeds 100% of the median salary in the NAM survey (based on job experience) for the position, the Board of Directors will review and collectively vote on the salary.
